INAUGURATION OF OJK NEW OFFICIALS STRENGTHENS ORGANIZATIONAL PERFORMANCE

Jakarta, 2 June 2026. Chairperson of the Board of Commissioners of Indonesia Financial Services Authority (OJK) Friderica Widyasari Dewi inaugurated and took the oath of office from Deputy Commissioner, Head of Department, Head of Special Unit, and Head of Regional OJK-level leaders as a part of organizational performance and integrity improvement.

“Leadership succession is an essential part of talent development and organizational strengthening. Therefore, position turnovers are beyond duty transference, but also a learning and adaptation momentum, for larger contribution to the organization,” Friderica conveyed in her opening remarks.

She reminded every newly inaugurated official to responsibly, professionally, and exemplarily carry out the mandate of their roles with utmost firm integrity.

“The mandate you receive today goes beyond honour. It is an enormous responsibility to ensure OJK remains as a professional, credible, adaptive organization with capability to provide real benefits to the consumers, the communities, and the national development,” she underlined.

The following are the inaugurated OJK officials:

1. Khoirul Muttaqien, Deputy Commissioner of Issuer, Securities Transactionn, Special Audit, Derivative Finances and Carbon Exchange Supervision
2. Irnal Fiscallutfi, Head of Special Unit for Transformation
3. Gontor Ryantori Aziz, Head of Financial Sector Technology Innovation, Digital Financial Assets and Crypto Assets Regulation and Licensing Department
4. Uli Agustina, Head of Financial Sector Technology Innovation, Digital Financial Assets and Crypto Assets Supervision Department
5. Triyoga Laksito, Head of OJK North Sumatera Province

Through the organizational strengthening, OJK continues to maintain financial services sector stability, enhance consumer protection, and support fair national economic growth.
