AND ADRIAN ASHARYANTO GUNADI GUNADI

Jakarta, July 25, 2025. Indonesia Financial Services Authority of Indonesia (Otoritas Jasa Keuangan/OJK) reaffirms its strong commitment to the law enforcement process against Mr. Adrian Asharyanto Gunadi (Mr. Adrian), the former CEO of PT Investree Radhika Jaya (Investree), who has been officially named a suspect in an alleged financial services crime. Mr. Adrian is currently listed as an Indonesia's Most Wanted List/Most Wanted Person (DPO) and has been issued a red notice.

As part of the law enforcement process, OJK continues to facilitate efforts to repatriate Mr. Adrian to Indonesia, in coordination with relevant domestic and international authorities.

In light of recent media reports, OJK expresses its regret over the decision by relevant authorities in Qatar that granted license for Mr. Adrian as CEO of JTA Investree Doha Consultancy, despite his legal status in Indonesia.

OJK will intensify and expand cooperation with legal and regulatory bodies both in Indonesia and abroad to address this issue, including pursuing Mr. Adrian's return to face both criminal and civil accountability in Indonesia.

As part of its legal response to the Investree case, OJK has taken decisive action within its authority to address the Investree case, including revoking the company's business license on 21 October 2024 for failing to meet minimum capital requirements and committing multiple regulatory violations.

Furthermore, OJK has imposed a ban on Mr. Adrian from serving as a key party in any financial institution, ordered the blocking of his bank accounts, and initiated asset tracing efforts in support of the ongoing legal investigation.

Mr. Adrian has been officially charged with illegal fundraising, as stipulated under Article 46 of Indonesia's Banking Law. This charge follows an investigation conducted by OJK's Financial Services Sector Investigation Department (DPJK).

OJK remains fully committed to fostering a sound and trustworthy financial services industry. Any violation of prevailing regulations will be dealt with firmly and transparently, in line with OJK's dedication to upholding the law and maintaining public trust.
