

MOCH MUCHLASIN

DIRECTOR OF SHARIA NON-BANK FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS
INDONESIA FINANCIAL SERVICES AUTHORITY

EXPERIENCE

He worked in Directorate General of Financial Institutions – Ministry of Finance on various roles as analyst, examiner and enforcement officer between 1994 and 2006, mostly in Directorate of Pension Fund prior to the establishment of Capital Market and Financial Institutions Supervisory Agency (BapepamLK) in 2006.

He has been involved in government guarantee scheme project (2004-2005) that lead to the establishment of Indonesian Deposit Insurance Corporation (IDIC) in 2005.

He also involves on drafting process of OJK Law in 2006-2011 and member of transition team for the establishment of Indonesia Financial Services Authority (OJK) in 2011-2012.

He is currently Director of Sharia Non-Bank Financial Institutions, Indonesia Financial Services Authority since 2013. In his role, he pursued to establish regulatory framework for sharia compliance pension fund that lead to the issuance of Fatwas on Sharia Compliance Pension Fund and Sharia Compliant Annuity and the enactment of OJK Regulation for Sharia Compliant Pension Fund.

EDUCATION

Bachelor

Moch. Muchlasin graduated from the Universitas Indonesia with a Bachelor of Economics degree in Accounting.

Master

He studied management and employment relation in School of Industrial Relations and Organisation Behaviour (IROB) at the University of New South Wales (UNSW)- Sydney, Australia and completed his Master of Commerce degree in 2004.