CONSULTANT FOR INSURANCE & PENSION THE WORLD BANK

EXPERIENCE

Tony Randle was a senior financial sector specialist working in pensions and insurance for the World Bank prior to his retirement.

He had the privilege of working in most of the regions in the world and developed a particular interest in helping countries reform their defined benefit funds in the face of major demographic changes. Prior to working for the Bank, he was a General Manager for the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority and led the pension reforms put in place by the Government to improve corporate governance and risk management in pension funds.

EDUCATION

Tony holds an undergraduate degree majoring in finance and post graduate qualifications in finance, accounting and insurance law.
