

RULE NUMBER IX.A.1 : GENERAL REQUIREMENTS REGARDING SUBMISSION OF A REGISTRATION STATEMENT

Attachment :
Decision of the Chairman of Bapepam
Number : Kep-111/PM/1996
Date : December 24, 1996
Substitute Prior Decision
Number : Kep-03/PM/1996
Date : March 20, 1995

1. A Registration Statement and all its supporting documents must be submitted to Bapepam in a complete manner, even though certain information such as the offering price and the effective date can not yet be determined on the submission date.
2. The Issuer or the Public Company must make the submission of the Registration Statement referred to item 1 of this rule.
3. The Issuer or the Public Company is fully responsible for the accuracy, adequacy and the truth of opinions and all information presented in the Registration Statement submitted to Bapepam. If an item contained in a Bapepam rule or form regarding disclosure requirements does not apply to a specific Issuer, Public Company, or Public Offering, it need not be disclosed in the Registration Statement.
4. In addition to the information and documents which must be included in the Registration Statement, the Person who submits the registration Statement must also include other material information that is needed to ensure that investors have adequate information regarding the financial condition and business activities of the Issuer or the Public Company and that the disclosure is not misleading.
5. Underwriters, Capital Market Supporting Professionals, and other Persons who provide opinions or information, which with their approval is presented in the Registration Statement, are responsible for the statements and opinions in the document submitted to Bapepam.
6. The Registration Statement and its supporting documents referred to item 1 of this rule must be submitted in 4 (four) copies; each of which must be bound or held together in some other way in one or more parts.
7. At least one copy of the Registration Statement and other documents must be manually signed by the Persons whose names are specified in the Registration Statement and affixed with adequate stamp duty
8. The Registration Statement must be presented on a light color and good quality paper with the size of approximately 21 x 30 centimeters. Tables, charts, financial statements and other documents may be of larger size as long as they are folded to approximately 21 x 30 centimeters. The Prospectus may be of smaller dimensions, if desired.

9. The Registration Statement and all documents submitted must be printed (if possible), typed or prepared in another similar process, so that the content is clear, easy to read, and suitable for copying and storage.
10. The Registration Statement must be written in Indonesian. Any supporting documents written in other languages must be accompanied by an Indonesian Language translation (certified by a sworn translator)
11. The covering letter of the Registration Statement and other documents submitted must be numbered sequentially, in addition to any internal numbering of separate parts, such as the Prospectus and other required documents. The total number of pages submitted must be indicated in the covering letter.
12. Any supporting documents which are not a part of the Registration Statement submitted either voluntarily or in response to any request from Bapepam and that are confidential in nature, must be separated from the documents required for the Registration Statement. Such documents must be clearly marked along with a request not to be made public, otherwise such documents may be subject to Article 89 item (1) of Law no.8 of 1995 regarding the Capital Market.
